

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

WESLEY COTTON,

Plaintiff,

v.

MEDINA, et al.,

Defendants.

Case No.: 1:22-cv-00568 JLT EPG

PRETRIAL ORDER<sup>1</sup>; ORDER DENYING MOTION IN LIMINES, MOTION FOR SANCTIONS AND OVERRULING FORMAL
OBJECTION
(Docs. 176, 177, 178, 179)

Deadlines:
Motions in Limine Filing: 1/5/2026
Oppositions to Motions in Limine: 1/12/2026
Trial Submissions: 1/13/2026
Jury trial: 1/27/2026 at 8:30 a.m., 2-4 days

On November 17, 2025, the Court conducted a final pretrial conference in this action via Zoom. (See Doc. 134.) Wesley Cotton appeared pro se and David E. Kuchinsky appeared as counsel for Defendant. Having considered the parties' pretrial statements, (Docs. 172, 173), the Court issues this tentative pretrial order.

Plaintiff is a state prisoner proceeding pro se and in forma pauperis in this civil rights action

<sup>1</sup> Plaintiff takes exception to the "late filing" of the defendant's pretrial statement. (Doc. 179) However, the defense statement was filed on the same day as plaintiff's statement, September 30, 2025. (See Docs. 172, 173) Thus, the motion (Doc. 179) is DENIED. Moreover, though Plaintiff indicates that if his trial does not proceed as scheduled, he will view it as "unfair." At this time, the Court cannot assure him that it will proceed as scheduled. Because criminal cases are required by the Constitution to have priority, and the Court prioritizes older cases over newer ones, whether this trial will proceed as currently scheduled is unknown and will remain unknown until the date approaches. Unfortunately, there is no constitutional guarantee that a civil case, such as this one, proceed in any particular timeframe. The only way to assure that the trial will proceed as scheduled is to consent to magistrate judge jurisdiction—as this Court has repeatedly instructed the parties.

brought pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. (See Doc. 172.) This case proceeds on Plaintiff's claims against Corcoran State Prison Sergeant Medina for failure to protect. (Doc. 173.) Generally, this claim alleges that Defendant Medina failed to protect Plaintiff from exposure to oleoresin capsicum ("OC") on March 19, 2022, at California State Prison in Corcoran, California. (Id.)

A. JURISDICTION / VENUE

This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and § 1343 because Plaintiff's claims arise under federal law. The events that gave rise to this action occurred at the California State Prison in Corcoran, California. Accordingly, venue is proper in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of California. See 28 U.S.C. § 1391.

1 examination of any qualified witness; and (3) admitting Rule 1006 summary charts
2 derived from admissible government publications.” (Doc. 169.)

- 3 2. Plaintiff has filed a Motion for Judicial Notice of Government Publications. (Doc.
4 168.) Plaintiff “moves the Court to take judicial notice of the existence and content of
5 the following government publications related to riot-control agents (CN/CS)
6 dispersion, exposure, and downwind hazard planning. These are self-authenticating
7 public records subject to the hearsay exception for public records and proper subjects of 8 judicial notice under FRE 201, 803(8), and 902(5).” (Doc. 168.)
- 9 3. Plaintiff has filed a Motion to Strike Contreras Statements. (Doc. 170.)
- 10 4. Plaintiff has filed a Request for Judicial Notice of Docketed Orders/Filings and Order
11 Confirming Discovery is Closed. (Doc. 171.)

12 II. Defendant

- 13 1. Defendant intends to file motions in limine to preclude Plaintiff from testifying,
14 eliciting testimony, or introducing evidence of the following matters: (a) Plaintiff’s own
15 lay opinions regarding causation, diagnosis, or prognosis for any alleged injuries
16 Plaintiff claims are related to Defendant’s purported conduct; (b) any dismissed claims
17 or Defendant; (c) hearsay statements, and documents containing hearsay statements,
18 which Defendant anticipate Plaintiff may seek to introduce based on his previous 19 statements and filings in this case; (d) Defendant’s involvement in other lawsuits or 20 incidents alleging misconduct; (e) offers to compromise; and (f) CDCR’s
21 indemnification of an adverse judgment.
- 22 2. Defendant also intends to file a motion in limine to permit her to introduce evidence of 23 Plaintiff’s, and any incarcerated witness’s, felony convictions and sentences for 24 impeachment purposes.

25 The purpose of a motion in limine is to establish, in advance of the trial, that certain evidence
26 should not be offered at trial. “Although the Federal Rules of Evidence do not explicitly authorize in 27 limine rulings, the practice has developed pursuant to the district court’s inherent authority to manage
28 the course of trials.” Luce v. United States, 469 U.S. 38, 40 n. 2 (1984); Jonasson v. Lutheran Child

1 and Family Services, 115 F. 3d 436, 440 (7th Cir. 1997). The Court will grant a motion in limine, and
 2 thereby bar use of the evidence in question, only if the moving party establishes that the evidence
 3 clearly is not admissible for any valid purpose. Id. The Court does not encourage the filing of motions
 4 in limine unless they are addressed to issues that can realistically be resolved by the Court prior to trial
 5 and without reference to the other evidence which will be introduced by the parties at trial.

6 In advance of filing any motion in limine, the parties SHALL meet and confer to 7 determine whether they can resolve any disputes and avoid filing motions in limine. Along with
 8 their motions in limine, the parties SHALL file a certification demonstrating they have in good
 9 faith met and conferred and attempted to resolve the dispute. Failure to provide the 10 certification may result in the Court refusing to entertain the motion.

11 Any motions in limine must be filed with the Court no later than January 5, 2026. The motion
 12 must clearly identify the nature of the evidence that the moving party seeks to prohibit the other side
 13 from offering at trial. Any opposition to the motion must be served on the other party and filed with 14 the Court no later than January 12, 2026. Upon receipt of any opposition briefs, the Court will notify 15 the parties if it decides that argument is needed on any motion in limine.

9 2. The Court does not allow undisclosed witnesses to be called for any purpose,
10 including impeachment or rebuttal, unless they meet the following criteria:

- 11 a. The party offering the witness demonstrates that the witness is for the purpose of
- 12 rebutting evidence that could not be reasonably anticipated at the pretrial conference, or
- 13 b. The witness was discovered after the pretrial conference and the proffering party
- 14 makes the showing required in paragraph 3, below.

15 3. Upon the post pretrial discovery of any witness a party wishes to present at trial, the 16 party shall promptly inform the Court and opposing parties of the existence of the unlisted witnesses
17 so the Court may consider whether the witnesses shall be permitted to testify at trial. The witnesses 18 will not be permitted unless:

- 19 a. The witness could not reasonably have been discovered prior to the discovery
- 20 cutoff;
- 21 b. The Court and opposing parties were promptly notified upon discovery of the
- 22 witness;
- 23 c. If time permitted, the party proffered the witness for deposition; and
- 24 d. If time did not permit, a reasonable summary of the witness's testimony was
- 25 provided to opposing parties.

27 <sup>4</sup> "Although the custodians of records will be available to testify at trial, to avoid undue expense and absent any 28 dispute about the authenticity of the documents to be presented, Defendant requests that this witness be permitted to authenticate documents through a declaration." (Doc. 173, p.7; fn. 3).

1           4.       Motions to preclude witnesses/sanctions/objections

2           After receiving the defense pretrial statement in which the defense identified the witnesses set
3 forth above, Mr. Cotton filed various motions directed at seeking to exclude them from testifying.
4 (Docs. 176, 177, 178, 179) The rationale for the motions was that the defense failed to list these
5 witnesses on their Rule 26 disclosure and Defendant Medina reported that she knew of no witnesses
6 who “could prove her whereabouts or act as an alibi.” (Doc. 177 at 2) The defendant responds, and it
7 is undisputed, that all of these witnesses were made known to plaintiff through discovery, though the 8 defense failed to update their Rule 26 disclosure.

9           The Court is required to consider the motion according to Rule 37. Rule 37 would require the 10 Court to strike the undisclosed witnesses unless the failure was harmless. Here, it appears that most of 11 these witnesses can speak only to why the tear gas/OC spray was deployed in the yard, rather than 12 whether Medina refused to provide plaintiff medical care. On the other hand, plaintiff received the 13 incident report detailing the acts of the various officers involved in the event, which gave rise to the 14 tear gas/OC spray wafting onto the yard where Plaintiff was taking leisure activity. Thus, the failure to 15 update the Rule 26 disclosure was harmless because plaintiff had the incident report and the yard logs
16 well in advance of the discovery deadline. For these reasons, the motion in limine (Docs. 176), the 17 motion for sanctions (Doc. 177) and the formal objections (Doc. 178) are DENIED.

18           K.       EXHIBITS, SCHEDULES AND SUMMARIES

19           NO EXHIBIT, OTHER THAN THOSE LISTED HEREIN, MAY BE ADMITTED UNLESS 20 THE PARTIES STIPULATE OR UPON A SHOWING THAT THIS ORDER SHOULD BE 21 MODIFIED TO PREVENT “MANIFEST INJUSTICE.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(e); Local Rule
22 281(b)(11).

23           1.       For a party to use an undisclosed exhibit for any purpose, they must meet the 24 following criteria:

- 25                   a.   The party proffering the exhibit demonstrates that the exhibit is for the purpose of 26                   rebutting evidence that could not have been reasonably anticipated, or
27                   b.   The exhibit was discovered after the issuance of this order and the proffering party
28                   makes the showing required in paragraph 2, below.

2. Upon the discovery of exhibits after the discovery cutoff, a party shall promptly inform the Court and opposing parties of the existence of such exhibits so that the Court may consider their admissibility at trial. The exhibits will not be received unless the proffering party demonstrates:

- a. The exhibits could not reasonably have been discovered earlier;
- b. The Court and opposing parties were promptly informed of their existence; and
- c. The proffering party forwarded a copy of the exhibits (if physically possible) to the opposing party. If the exhibits may not be copied the proffering party must show that it has made the exhibits reasonably available for inspection by the opposing parties.

Thus, any exhibit not previously provided in discovery SHALL be provided at least five court days in advance of the exhibit conference.

2. At the conference, the parties shall identify any duplicate exhibits, i.e., any document which both sides desire to introduce into evidence. 6. On the index, as to exhibits to which there are objections to admissibility that are not based solely on a lack of foundation, the parties will place a mark under the column heading entitled “Other Objections.”

7. As to each exhibit which is not objected to in the index, it shall be marked and received into evidence and will require no further foundation.

After the exhibit conference, Plaintiff and counsel for the defendants SHALL develop four complete, legible sets of exhibits. The Defendant SHALL deliver three sets of the exhibit binders to the Courtroom Deputy and provide one set of the exhibit to the opponent, no later than 4:00 p.m., on January 22, 2026.
